

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

CHAS. M. MACHAM, Editor.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 16, 1889.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY.

A live and growing city of 8,000 inhabitants, situated in a county of 4,000. The Louisville and Nashville has two lines of railroad in the county. The largest tobacco growing county in the world. Wheat, corn, hay, coal, livestock and fruits produced for export in large quantities. The city has four banks with an aggregate capital of $1,000,000. A planing mill and wagon factory, three carriage factories, line factory, tobacco manufactory, two foundries, three brickyards, broom factory, steam laundry, ice factory, two large flouring mills in the city and several in the county. Splendid driving par and sea opera house. Fine turnpikes connecting in Hopkinsville. Building and Loan Association, Commercial Club, a telephone exchange, numbered streets and houses and city lighted by gas incandescent lights and brick sidewalks all over the city. Eleven churches, two colleges, a high school and the finest system of public schools, white and colored, in the State. Western Kentucky Lunatic Asylum with a population of 200, two miles east of the city. A $100,000 court house with town clock in the dome. A fine fire department and a company of State Guards. Little River furnishes an adequate supply of water for all purposes. Heat, light and water cheap. Fine opening for woolen mill, pork packing establishment, fruit canner, any and many other enterprises. Climate mild and invigorating and exceedingly beautiful.

The Grand Lodge of the Order of Chosen Friends met in annual session at Louisville Wednesday.

In the race at Monmouth Park last Tuesday for the Omnibus stakes, Longstreet came out first and Proctor Knott second.

Dr. Alexander Mott, one of the most noted surgeons of this country, died at Yonkers, New York, last Tuesday, in his 63d year.

Gen. Boulanger has been found guilty of conspiracy by the Senate Council. The next thing in order is to find a way to get hold of and punish him.

Secretary Noble, so says an officer of the Interior Department, has no idea of permitting a whitewashing of Tanager, the head of the Pension bureau.

The hotel at Blue Lick Springs, a summer resort near Cyrtland, was burned Monday. Loss $32,000; insurance $16,000. The 200 guests escaped without injury.

The Times says that the chances for a lively race for congress in the Louisville district are good. Thompson, Winchester, Caruth, Willis and Jacob all want to "get there."

With $700,000,000 locked up in the vaults of the government and the people being heavily drained every year to pay pensioners, no one need wonder that "times are hard."

If the Brown-Segard elixir should be a success the world will soon have to be enlarged, as the births exceed the deaths. It is about as easy to make the world larger as it is to keep a man from dying "when his time comes."

It is highly probable that 6,000 window-glass workers at Pittsburgh will strike in a few days because their employers will not meet a demand for increased pay. 7,000 employees of a Pittsburgh iron mill struck last Tuesday.

The Henderson Gleaser has perfected arrangements for the exclusive use of a telephone or telegraph line connecting with Evansville. The Gleaser seems to be in a most prosperous condition. It certainly deserves success.

Martin Burke, the Cronin-suspect extradited from Canada, has been taken back to Chicago and identified as "Frank Williams," who rented the cottage where Dr. Cronin was murdered. Two detectives have evidently captured the right man.

The required number of signers of the opening of the great Sioux Reservation has been recorded and in a short time 11,000,000 acres of land in South Dakota will be thrown open for settlement, as soon as Congress can meet and ratify the treaty.

The Madisonville Item has this to say about Christyau county's candidate for the Senate: "To no one is greater credit due than to that tried and true Democratic statesman, Hon. James A. McKenzie. He made a most vigorous fight for west Kentucky Democrats. He went into every precinct where the result was doubtful and dealt strong blows to the opposition. Now life was infused into the party everywhere and a glorious victory is the result. Give 'Quinine Jim' the proper credit."

A couple of Philadelphia newspapers per idlers allowed themselves to be experimented on with the Brown-Square elixir and are now laid up with fever and severe pains, and their fears of losing their lives exceed their curiosity to know how the elixir affects them.

Last Wednesday morning on the arrival of a train at Lathrop, O. U. S. Supreme Judge, Stephen J. Field and Deputy U. S. Marshal David Nagle walked into the depot dining room and took their seats. Soon after Ex-Judge Terry and wife also entered, when Terry, noting the presence of Judge Field, walked over to where he was sitting and deliberately slapped him in the face. Deputy Marshal Nagle at once came from his seat and shot Terry through the heart. While Terry was falling Nagle fired a second shot, but missed his aim. Terry was dead when he struck the floor. Terry was at one time Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of California. He was a blood-thirsty man and suffered the same fate that he had meted out to others. He was a Kentuckian.

ALL OF 'EM WANT 'PIE.

But Collector Feland Cannot Satisfy Them.

The Owensboro Inquirer says that Mr. Feland has used his best judgment in making accommodations to the Department for the appointment of men in his district, but there has nevertheless been considerable kicking in different counties because there were more applicants for place than allowed under the rules. This was nothing but what Mr. Feland expected and the disappointed would have to wait until their time comes. The Inquirer thinks that peace will reign in the Republican camp of this district after a while, but the Henderson Gleaser takes a different view of the matter. The Gleaser says: "There was war in the Republican camp, no kicking, no firing from a gun, but a straight, square out, face-to-face battle coming on. The question arises and must be answered, is Mr. Feland the Republican party? Is the man who united with the Democrats and mugwumps to seek the election of Horace Greely to the presidency of the United States to turn a cold shoulder to Republicans who have held the faith handed down by Lincoln and Grant, and distribute patronage to those who have been illers and lukewarm partisans?"

Mr. Feland has overruled the recommendation of the Republican club of this county in his appointment of one storekeeper, and certainly he has given appointments to Democrats while the old battle-scarred veterans are left to review their work and then seek their thumbs. Go it, Feland, go it. You are doing more to disrupt and rend asunder what remains of a party once well organized and fully equipped than all of the Republicans who have held an office since the war."

THE JOLLY-FELAND MATTER.

The following, from the Owensboro Messenger, gives about all the light to be obtained as to who will be recommended by Attorney Jolly for the Assistant Attorneyship: "The local affair relative to the appointment of an assistant U. S. District Attorney has about subsided, though a few people are doing a great deal of talking as though trying to make a fuss of it whether the principal parties interested will or no."

Nothing new has come to the surface. Mr. Jolly is still in Louisville, and if he has made a move it is not announced.

The Louisville Post yesterday took a look at the situation and felt to say: "Hon. George W. Jolly, the new United States District Attorney for Kentucky, appeared shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon in the United States Circuit Clerk's office, and took the oath of office, as District Attorney for the State of Kentucky, Samuel B. Crall, United States Clerk, swearing him in. Judge Wickliffe, the present Democratic District Attorney, also appeared in his usual good humor and in his own proper person, as the lawyers say."

Soon after Mr. Jolly was sworn in the District Attorney and the new one retired for private consultation. It then looked out that Judge Wickliffe had declined to give up the office until his term expired in January next, he having been commissioned for four years. A representative of the Post saw both Mr. Jolly and Judge Wickliffe about the matter of when the new one would go in and the old one would go out. Mr. Jolly said he presumed he would go into office at once.

"Who will my deputy be? Well," said Mr. Jolly, "I have made up my mind as to that, but I can't tell you this afternoon who he will be."

Mr. George DuRelle was present in the hallway. He seems to be well pleased, and it is almost certain that he will get the place. Mr. DuRelle declined to be interviewed on the subject, but he did refer to the belief that his friend, Mr. Jolly, would appoint him if anybody was appointed.

Judge Wickliffe said he had not made up his mind yet when he would go out of office. He and Mr. Jolly were holding a consultation and would come to some understanding to-night. Judge Wickliffe's friends say he will make a contest certain, but in any event it is reasonably certain that George DuRelle is to be the next Assistant District Attorney."

The Messenger is very sure that the appointment of Mr. DuRelle will be made, and it will probably be announced to-day. It also believes that there will be no trouble over the matter and that Mr. Jolly will, by his release, Mr. Jolly from his promise. A representative of the Kentuckian saw John Feland, Jr., yesterday, and in reply to the question, "What do you know about the Assistant Attorneyship?" answered, "nothing."

THE GREAT SEA-SHORE EXCURSION VIA THE CHESAPEAKE & OHIO RAILWAY.

Two Hundred and Seventy-Five Kentuckians at Old Point Comfort.

Old Point Comfort, Va., Aug. 11.—It was a happy thought of the founder of the Hygeia Hotel to hold this stupendous caravansary of enjoyment at the confluence of waters at Hampton Roads, where Chesapeake and Delaware Bay, Elizabeth and James Rivers and innumerable creeks mingle their placid waves to form a haven for the ships of all nations, with ample space for all the merchant-men and war-ships of the world. The surrounding inlets and creeks yield the finest oysters in abundance, and canvas-backs and water fowls of every kind, and the waters swarm with mackerel, sea-trout, hog-fish, flounders, spots and crabs. Land and sea are rich in the luxuries of the table, the air is wholesome and the sun-bathing seldom equaled anywhere.

The sea-shore excursion to Old Point Comfort, which left Hopkinsville August 7th, over the C. & O. railway, under the conduct of Mr. W. A. Wilgus, and embracing 275 excursionists from Hopkinsville and some eight or nine other cities and towns of Kentucky and Tennessee has proved a brilliant success and deserves honorable mention as the greatest excursion of the present summer. The scheme was a good one. Its objective point—rich in historic incident and anecdote from the mythical days of Captain John Smith and Pocahontas, and the legend of the Revolution, to the immortal sight of the Monitor and the Merrimack, the most important by far in its results and lesson of all modern naval battles—outshone all its rivals.

When the excursionists reached the Hygeia Hotel the evening of the second day, involuntary exclamations of delight and wonder broke out on all sides. That immense Castle of Pleasure, which rises aloft like Aladdin's Palace by the yellow beach, glittered with countless lights and echoed with the hum of conversation and the exuberant mirth of its thousand guests.

Hopkinsville has here a delegation of young girls who have no reason to decline entering a contest with the most fashionable and elegant devotees of pleasure at Old Point. Their intelligent faces, refined and graceful bearing and sparkling conversation, bespeak a pure and exalted womanhood, without a superior to the most favored places upon earth.

Excursions to Vincent, Norfolk, Hampton, Virginia Beach, Ocean View, Washington and Richmond at greatly reduced rates vary the daily programme. To-morrow Mr. Wilgus will take a party to New York, conduct them to leading places of interest and place them at excellent hotels at reduced rates. Sight-seeing and travel is thus reduced to wonderfully low terms.

The man who, with the means at his command, deities himself and his family a visit to this queen of all summer sea-shore resorts on the Atlantic coast, can be excused on account of his ignorance only. At no other point can so great and rich a variety be had for so little money. We advise all to seize the first Old Point excursion which is offered.

THE CRAFT.

An explosive was left at the office of the Lexington Leader last Monday for D. L. Baxter, a newspaper correspondent. It was carried into the office by a negro boy. There was nothing suspicious about the appearance of the package, but an examination being made some time after it was left it was discovered that it contained something very much like dynamite. There was enough of it to blow to atoms the Leader's office or a much larger building. The pursuance of matters failed to explode, and of course no damage was done. The matter is looked upon in different lights by the Lexingtonians, some of them believing that it was only intended as a joke, gotten up for no other purpose than to furnish the Leader with a sensational item, and that the supposed dynamite was nothing more than saw dust and rosin.

Likewise Ben Poindexter. Stop your valiant little wings, And cower as we're so crew; Strut none for our Jim Whitham, And hoarsey Macon too. —Lewisburg Post.

Give it the Ellixir of Life. [Frankfort Capital.] An Indiana man claims to possess the power of almost instantly stopping the flow of blood. The Republican party of Kentucky should send for him at once. For more than a week past it has been lying bleeding at the feet of the victorious Democracy of the State.

If They Are Sensible. [Hickman Courier.] It is a fact that newspaper readers do not slight the advertisements. The have come to realize that the advertisements in a newspaper represent the goods which the merchants have for sale, and they take pains to familiarize themselves with what storekeepers have to offer.

J. Wesley Mathis, who has been connected with the Pineville Messenger since it was founded, has purchased the paper from E. C. Colgan. Mr. Colgan will give him the whole time to edit other papers at Middleboro—the Cumberland Gap. We wish both the papers abundant success.

THREE FOOLS LESS.

Three Ignorant Negroes Walk Into a Fiery Furnace at Their Bidding.

Hopkinsville, Aug. 13.—The most remarkable religious craze pervades the negroes near Henderson and the country intermediate between that rapidly-growing place and Birmingham.

For some time past an old negro named Tobias Jackson has been proclaiming himself as Daniel the prophet and doing all kinds of singular, wild and queer things. The negroes in this section are ignorant and superstitious, and Jackson's actions and the great powers with which he claims to be invested are the ampleminded negroes. Saturday last he persuaded three young negro men that they were representatives of Sadrach, Meshack and Abednego, the three children of faith who entered the fiery furnace of Nebuchadnezzar of old. He proclaimed that a furnace where iron is melted and cast into all kinds of forms is the furnace of Nebuchadnezzar, and that they could enter it and pass through with out the smallest of fire. The three men, selling themselves to the three children of faith, under the influence of their own prophesy, deliberately entered the gate of the furnace and rushed headlong before they could be stopped into the white heat of the melting iron. When they failed to come out Jackson, the prophet, proclaimed that he saw them rising in the air with the smoke of the furnace, attended by angels, and said that they would revisit the earth again next Sunday.

The negroes propose to meet at church next Sunday and pray, awaiting the descent of the three children of Israel. The mother of one of them said when asked about the matter: "I feel 'as sho' my boy is in heaven as if I'd been dead and a seed 'im, Jackson, the prophet, 'comin' 'im to walk in do fiery furnace and he beloged ter 'em 'im."

BOILER EXPLOSION AT DAWSON.

Two Lives Lost and Three Men Seriously Injured.

Last Monday afternoon while the stove machine of Seaman & Co. was in full operation at Dawson the boiler exploded and a piece of it struck James Jackson, the fireman, on the head, killing him instantly. Another man by the name of James D. Meade was scalded so badly that he died the next day. Three other employees who were near by when the explosion occurred were very seriously if not fatally injured. The machine was located just above the railroad bridge and the explosion was heard for miles around. It caused considerable excitement in Dawson, and soon hundreds of persons were rapidly making their way to the scene of the accident. The fireman lay dead with his brains knocked out by the fatal missile, while Meade was found in a perfectly helpless condition. Medical aid was soon secured for him and the three other unfortunate, and the remains of the fireman were promptly prepared for burial.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Rev. John O. Rust.
The Clarksville Chronicle gave a column account of Rev. John O. Rust's visit to that city Sunday. From the article we make the following extracts:
"Rev. John O. Rust, of Hopkinsville, according to announcement exchanged pulpits with Dr. Sears yesterday. The fame of this brilliant, young pulpit orator, who was ordained to the ministry only a few months ago, had preceded him, and moreover, the many friends of the young man's father, Prof. J. W. Rust, turned out in deference to him, to hear his boy preach, and notwithstanding distinguished ministers occupied other pulpits in the city, Mr. Rust had a splendid audience during the morning service. * * * Nearly every church in the city was represented in the congregation, and it did not need the prestige of his father's reputation to bring out an audience for the evening service. The audience was enthused, and every one went away with the praise of the young preacher on his lips. * * * John O. Rust is the coming preacher of the Baptist denomination and the Hopkinsville church will soon find some trouble in holding him. He is destined to stir the hearts of the multitude. * * * Mr. Rust profited no little by his newspaper experience which enables him to use so much brevity in a strong sermon."

A Rapid Growth.
The growth of the order of Knights of Pythias in Kentucky during the last decade has been marvelous, and especially in this section of the State. Several new Lodges have been organized during the past year. Accessions to Evergreen Lodge, of this place, are regular and the Lodge is now in fine working order and always stands ready to assist in the organization of other Lodges. Last Monday Messrs. H. H. Abernathy, J. K. Gant, A. D. Rodgers, C. E. Kennedy, Gideon Gooch, Bob Woodruff, Wm. G. Girard, Manuel Hatfield, G. M. Hall, Max Mondel, O. G. Lander and O. S. Stevens went up to Trenton to assist in the organization of a new Lodge at that place. There were delegations from Clarksville, and Springfield, Tenn., and Russellville and Adairville. About fifteen members were initiated and officers installed, the proceedings occupying the entire night. The new Lodge was named "Hope Lodge, No. 53." At midnight the workers sat down to an elegant repast. The visitors report that they had a royal time.

Accident in Judge Winfree.
While feeding his horse Monday night, Judge W. P. Winfree stepped upon a trap door or loose plank in the stable, fell violently to the ground, breaking his left collar bone. He was unable to get up, but members of his family were attracted by his groans and he was taken into his house in a very short while and Dr. Hickman summoned, who set the broken bone and dressed the wound. The injury is a very painful one but is not of a serious character and Judge Winfree will probably be able to attend to business in a few days more. In his absence his partner, Mr. Walter Kelly, will attend to his office business.

Bah Onoley Killed.
Robt. M. Cooley, formerly of this city, was shot and killed in Henderson last Saturday. John Duncan's house was broken into and robbed and a posse was sent to arrest Cooley on suspicion. Finding himself hemmed in, Cooley attempted to break through the lines of the officers and escape, when Geo. Duncan fired upon him and killed him instantly. Duncan was one of the posse and a son of the man whose house had been robbed.

A BALLOON BURSTS.

The Aeronaut a Brother-in-Law of Mrs. C. T. Mason.
The following account of a fatal balloon ascension is taken from a Charlotte, N. C., paper. The ascension was made on the 9th inst. Last Wednesday Mr. C. T. Mason, whose wife is a sister of Mrs. Perry, received a telegram saying that her husband could not live longer than yesterday.

There was an exciting scene at Mount Holly fair grounds this afternoon. Professor W. K. Perry, the celebrated aeronaut of the American Balloon company, was to make his marvelous leap to the earth after ascending to a height of three-quarters of a mile, descending by the aid of a parachute.

At five o'clock, everything being in readiness, the dazzling feat was attempted in the presence of fifteen hundred people. The crowd watched the man climb into the air with bated breath.

When the balloon had traveled upwards about seven hundred feet the crowd discovered that it was bursting, gas could be seen shooting out, and soon the canvas cloth began to drip.

As Professor Perry was holding on under the parachute he was not aware of his terrible situation. The crowd became frantic with excitement. Yells went up and pistols were fired to attract the man's attention, but all of no avail.

Soon, however, all the gas and air in the balloon were exhausted, and twirling, jerking and whirling it began to fall downward. It was too late to loosen the parachute from the wrecked balloon, but for some distance it was successfully engineered. The balloon causing the parachute to capsize, all came down with a terrible crash to the earth.

The crowd rushed around to the unfortunate man, and every attention was given him, but for twenty minutes he did not move or show signs of life.

The fall is variously estimated at from one to four hundred feet. Professor Perry was brought here to-night and is being treated by the best medical skill in the city. Many of his bones are broken, but physicians think it is possible for him to recover.

The Teachers' Institute.
The five days meeting of the teachers of public schools of the county, which convened last Monday, closes to-day with a very interesting program. This is the second annual meeting held under the new law, and has been better attended and more interest manifested than that of last year, or any previous meeting under the old law. There are 90 districts in the county and 85 teachers were in attendance last Wednesday. It is probable that there will be 95 to-day. The meetings were held under the direction of County School Superintendent Renshaw, who appointed Prof. C. H. Dietrich to conduct them. All the teachers—whose names were published in our issue of last Tuesday—have been greatly benefited by their attendance, and it has been by far the most successful Institute yet held. Following is the program for to-day:

9:00. Opening exercises and roll call.
9:15 a. m. Primary Arithmetic, E. F. Coyner, Mrs. Rosa Bramham, Miss Jennie West.
10:30 a. m. Advanced Arithmetic, C. H. Pittman, E. F. Coyner, H. L. Hink.
12. Noon recess.
1:30. Oratory and Education, John L. Wain.
2:30 p. m. Physiology and Hygiene, S. L. Foye.
Lecture by Dr. James A. Young.
3:30 p. m. Recreations.
9:45 p. m. Miscellaneous Business. Adjournment.

Kentucky State S. S. Assembly.
The annual meeting of the Kentucky State Sunday School Assembly, of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, will be held at Millwood, Grayson county, Ky., on the Chesapeake and Ohio R. R., Aug. 27th, 28th and 29th. Reduced rates have been secured and homes will be provided for all delegates who send their names to Geo. A. Campbell, at Millwood. The program is unique, and the eminent workers from our own State and abroad, promise three days of rare entertainment. Let every school send a delegate and every delegate bring his Bible and Gospel Hymns.

Wallonia Wrecks.

WALLONIA, KY., Aug. 14.—Corn is very fine, other crops are ordinary but tobacco is nearly a failure. Wheat is selling slowly.
Great deal of sickness in the vicinity and some in town.
Hon. Mat Kinney, county superintendent, was in town this week on business.

Mr. Luther Haydon, of Paducah, was in town last Monday, accompanied by Judge Buchanan, of Shady Grove, Ky., both of whom are excellent men.
Mr. E. C. Brandon has returned from Paducah on account of bad health. He is President of the Kentucky Medical Company.

George D. Frey, principal of the Wallonia Institute, is in Christian county on business.
Since there is a tie in the election for representative it has elicited a good deal of interest in both parties. Aug. 19th is the time designated for the final decision.

TOBACCO NEWS.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.
Furnished by GLOVES & HOSIERY.
Sales for our market for the week just closed amount to 2,770 Hogheads with receipts for same period of 2,825 Hogheads. Sales on our market since January 1st, amount to 80,711 Hogheads of the crop of 1888, on our market up to this date 57,818 Hogheads. No special features of interest have developed on our market this week regarding dark tobacco. The tendency in prices for large is by no means flattering. The recent crop reports would certainly indicate likelihood of at least maintaining present prices on dark tobacco with some hope of early improvement. The following quotations fairly represent our market for dark tobacco both old and new.

Trash $1.00 to 1.75.
Common to Medium Leaf $2.00 to 3.00.
Dark Large extra quality $3.00 to 4.50.
Common Leaf $4.00 to 5.00.
Medium to Good leaf $5.00 to 6.00.
Good leaf Extra length $5.50 to 7.50.
Rich Wrappery tobacco $7.50 to 12.75.

Believes There's Something in It.
First Drummer at Restaurant—"Talk about the Brown-Square-Elixir, there must be something in it."
Second Drummer—"Nonsense! The very best of nothing. What's your reason?"
First Drummer—"If you have a place of this chicken how can you fail to believe that some M. D. has been experimenting on it with success."

To Dispel Cnids,

Speaking of the sermon preached at Clarksville last Sunday, by our young divine, John O. Rust, the Tobacco Leaf says: "His morning discourse was especially noteworthy, by reason of its simplicity and power. It was a practical sermon, full of truths, concisely and logically adjuvanted. It stamped him as a young minister of great power. Clarksville hopes to hear Mr. Rust often in the future. Many have been the favorable comments which his visit has elicited."

The Progress says: Rev. John O. Rust, of Hopkinsville, occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church here both in the morning and evening. Rev. Rust, an ex-journalist of prominence, is one of the brightest and most eloquent ministers that the Baptists have, and is a young man destined to accomplish much good in his calling. His sermons here were simply as his sermons always are, eloquent, logical and clear, and the church at this place was much pleased with the handsome young minister."

In our issue of last week in giving the proceedings in the police court, Mr. Van Martin, who has been living in the city for seven years, has been published as having been before the court on the charge of being drunk. Mr. Martin assures us that he has not been tried, for any offense and says most emphatically that he was not drunk and can prove the falsity of the charge by at least half a dozen reliable witnesses. We always take pleasure in correcting anything that may have been incorrectly reported in our columns.

Ayer's Hair Vigor is cleanly, agreeable, beneficial, and safe. It is the most elegant and the most economical of toilet preparations. By its use ladies can produce an abundant growth of hair, causing it to become natural in color, lustre, and texture.

Next Monday afternoon, at one o'clock, is the time set for the meeting at the L. B. Morris place to talk over and arrange for establishing a creamery. Farmers and everybody else are invited.

While workmen at Gardiner, Me., were excavating for the foundation of a new building they came upon a liquor-seller's outfit of peculiar design. It was a large liquor cask buried six feet under ground outside of the foundation wall of the building, the top of it being arranged on the alphon plan, the end of it provided with a faucet. This was concealed by a convenient brick carefully replaced after each drawing of the ardent and fermented in position. Above this opening a second tube connecting with the cask passed through the wall, and it was through this the stuff was poured when the indicator ran low. The officers searched in vain years ago to discover that particular rum-shop.

TWO NEW COLORS.

One of Them is a Black Made from Camphor and Sulphuric Acid.
Two new colors are described in various recent technical journals. The first is apparently a reproduction of a color known to the ancients, and made by them with mud and lime, heated with roasted copper. The pigment, on analysis, appears to be a compound silicate of lime and copper. It is now made with exact proportions of the materials, so that the product is uniform, and the process seems likely to furnish us with a material of great value. The color is a bright, greenish blue, so that it will be more available for decoration than French blue or cobalt blue, both of which are of a purplish cast, and do not mix well with other colors, whilst it appears to be as permanent as either of them. The other color is a black, which has been made by treating camphor with sulphuric acid. Its stopping camphor to strong sulphuric acid in a jelly-like mass is formed, of a reddish color. When this is heated, it boils, giving off fumes of sulphurous acid, and turns intensely black. By evaporation the uncombined excess of acid and camphor is driven off, and a black mass remains, which seems to have the qualities of Indian ink. Like Indian ink, it can be apparently dissolved in water, and remains suspended for a long time. We hope that some one will pursue the subject of this camphor-black. A pure liquid black is one of things that science has searched for in vain for many years, and even so near an approach to it as good Indian ink would be a most useful substance.—American Architect.
